

ALLIES IN PEKING

News of the Capture of the Chinese Capital Proves to Be True.

METHOD OF ENTRY NOT DETAILED

Some Reports Say That There Was Severe Fighting While Others Say There Was None.

Adm. Remey Confirms the Report and Says That All the Foreign Legations in Peking Are Safe—Latest Chinese Advice.

London, Aug. 18.—The second edition of the Daily Telegraph publishes a special dispatch from Shanghai, which says: "The allies entered Peking unopposed and met with a friendly reception from Prince Ching. All the hostile elements have already escaped from the city. The imperial court left for Shen-Si on August 11, with the Manchus. The Kausu troops have gone southwest with the object of drawing off the allies and preventing them from following up the court."

London, Aug. 18.—The hearsay accounts of the method of entry into Peking are contradictory, some maintaining that there was severe fighting and others that the entrance was not opposed. New Chwang was again attacked on August 13, but the Russians repulsed 2,000 Chinese, inflicting heavy loss, although they also suffered severely.

According to a dispatch to the Daily Express from Che-Foo, the dispatch from Mr. Conger, which was received by United States Consul Fowler Wednesday, after saying that all

GEN. SIR ALFRED GASELEE.
(Commander of the British Forces on the Way to Peking.)

The Americans were alive except the English baby and seven marines, admitted that there was some sickness but said that he expected food would last until relief came.

Shanghai dispatches say that Emperor Kwang Su accompanied the empress dowager to Hsian Fu, much against his will. Prince Tuan commanded the rear guard of the imperial escort, of which the Boxers formed 65 per cent. It was expected that Gen. Teng Fuh Siang would follow after the arrival of the allies. All the place treasures were sent to Hsian Fu.

"Peking was relieved on the night of the 15th." This message was received at the imperial customs office in London from the commissioner of customs in Che-Foo. It is the only official message that has reached England in confirmation of the earlier reports.

Proceeding to discuss the probabilities of a cessation of hostilities, the Morning Post assumes that the United States are willing to abandon any idea of further aggressive action, but it questions the disposition of Germany and the other powers to agree to such a course.

Telegram From Fowler.

Washington, Aug. 18.—The acting secretary of state makes public the following plain telegram received Friday evening from the United States consul at Che-Foo:

"Che-Foo, Aug. 17, 1900 (Received August 17th, 7:55 p. m.)

Secretary of State, Washington.
Seventeenth day. Japanese Admiral reports allies attacked Peking. Obstinately resistance. Evening Japanese entered capital with other forces. Immediately surrounded legations. Inmates safe. Japanese loss over 100. Chinese 300.

Remey Confirms the News.

Washington, Aug. 18.—The navy department received the following cablegram from Adm. Remey:

"Taken, Aug. 17, 1 a. m.—Bureau of Navigation, Washington: Just received telegram from Tien-Tsin dated 10th, 9 p. m.: 'Peking was captured on August 15. Foreign legations are safe. Details follow shortly.' (Signed) 'REMEY.'"

Order of the Relief Column.

Tokio, Aug. 18.—Extracts from a long dispatch describing the advance of the allied forces from Tien-Tsin say Gen. Ma disappeared during the fighting at Yang-Lung; that the immediate advance on Peking was decided upon at a council of war in which 385 officers took part, held at Yang-Tsun, August 7, and that the advance columns were drawn up in the following order: Japanese, Russian, British and American.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson in the International Series for August 26, 1900—Jesus the Good Shepherd.

[Prepared by H. C. Lennington.]
THE LESSON TEXT.
(John 10:1-15.)

1. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheep-fold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.
2. But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.
3. To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice; and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.
4. And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him; for they know his voice.
5. And a stranger will not follow him, but will flee from him; for they know not the voice of strangers.
6. This parable spake Jesus unto them; but they understood not what things they were which He spake unto them.
7. Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep.
8. All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not hear them.
9. I am the door; by Me if any man enter in, He shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.
10. The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy; I am come, that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.
11. I am the good shepherd; the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.
12. But He that is a hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth; and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.
13. The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.
14. I am the good shepherd, and know My sheep, and am known of mine.
15. As the Father knoweth Me, even so knoweth I the Father, and I lay down My life for the sheep.
16. And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold; them also I must bring, and they shall hear My voice, and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

GOLDEN TEXT.—The good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.—John 10:11.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The Shepherd of the Sheep (Verses 1-5).—The connection of this lesson with the last is marked. Not only does it belong to the same series of discourses, but its application hinges upon the events connected with the story of the blind man. The Pharisees were anxious to divert the credit for the restoring of this man's sight from Jesus. They said to Him: "Give God the glory; we know that this man (Jesus) is a sinner." The reply of the man was eminently sensible. Theorizing was not in his line, but he had one hard, solid, substantial fact upon which to stand. "Whether he be a sinner," he said, "I know not; one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see." This could not be disputed; it was evident to all. It was no theory, but a fact. So they made him repeat his story, and having determined to put anyone out of the synagogue who acknowledged Jesus to be the Christ, the Pharisees followed him hard with questions until he boldly declared: "If this man were not from God, he could do nothing."

Jesus heard that they had cast him out of the synagogue, and finding him, declared Himself to be the Son of God. Then turning to the Pharisees spoke this parable of the good shepherd, drawing the distinction between the true and false leaders. The priests and Pharisees stood in the place of shepherds to the children of Israel, their religious guides and instructors. They had misused their positions, substituted false doctrines, and led the sheep astray. They strove for personal advantage, for position and honor, and not for the good of those in their charge. The parable is really an arraignment of these false teachers.

Jesus the Door (Verses 6-7).—In contradistinction to this worldly, self-seeking attitude, Jesus declares Himself to be the door of the sheep. The Pharisees had not understood the parable. Jesus points out the application: "The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy." They had been thieves in the fold of the Master. Jesus instead of seeking personal advantage declares He has come "that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly."

Jesus the Shepherd (Verses 11-15).—Not only is Jesus the door, the way to life, but He is the Shepherd. The sheep belong to Him. The men who care for the sheep for Him feel little interest in the welfare of the sheep. They fly for their own safety at the cry of "wolf." Jesus, the true Shepherd, will lay His very life down for the sheep. The Pharisees have claimed to be the ambassadors of God, but they know not God's son. Jesus knows the Father, and His Father's interests are His interests, therefore the sheep, all true believers in God and Jesus Christ, shall know His voice. By and by all such believers shall be gathered together in one fold under one shepherd.

One of the main lessons to be found in all this story outside of its plainly evangelistic teaching is that we may know the true teacher, the one who can be trusted, by the fact that he seeks not his own interests, but the interests of others. The unselfish life is the life of power and influence among men.

Note in the lesson the many objects present and draw from them their lessons. The door, the sheep, the hireling and wolf all have a distinct teaching.

Duty of To-Day.

"To-day" also imposes a duty. "Exhort one another daily, while it is called to-day, lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin." Failure to use the present any earnestly with it the possibility that we or others may be hardened in sin.—United Presbyterian.

The Great Thing.

It ought not to seem much to me to serve Thee, but rather this doth appear much to me, and wonderful, that thou vouchsafest to receive into thy service one so poor and unworthy.

Passing of the Horse.

So soon as nature sees an improvement there is a change. The candle gave way to electricity. The spinning wheel to machinery, the horse to the automobile. The fact that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has been sold for over half a century, proves its value. There is nothing to equal it for stomach or liver trouble. It is Nature's own remedy, and the only one to cure dyspepsia or weak stomach.

When a preparation has an advertised reputation that is world-wide, it means that preparation is meritorious. If you go into a store to buy an article that has achieved universal popularity like Cascarets Candy Cathartic for example, you feel it has the endorsement of the world. The judgment of the people is infallible because it is impersonal. The retailer who wants to sell you "something else" in place of the article you ask for, has an ax to grind. Don't it stand to reason? He's trying to sell something that is not what he represents it to be. Why? Because he expects to derive an extra profit out of your credulity. Don't you see through his little game? The man who will try to sell you a substitute for Cascarets is a fraud. Beware of him! He is trying to steal the honestly earned benefits of a reputation which another business man has paid for, and if his conscience will allow him to go so far, he will go farther. If he cheats his customer in one way, he will in another and it is not safe to do business with him. Beware of the Cascarets substitute! Remember Cascarets are never sold in bulk but in metal boxes with the long tailed "C" on every box and each tablet stamped C. C. C.
